

Family Studies Advisory Board Notes

Recent Publications—

$56.00 (cloth)
$25.95 (paper)

Sandra A. Rigazio-DiGilio, Allen E. Ivey, Lois T. Grady, and Kara P. Kunkler-Peck. Community Genograms: Using Individual, Family, and Cultural Narratives with Clients. (Foreword by Dorothy S. Becvar). Multicultural Foundations of Psychology and Counseling. Pub Date: Mar 05, 2005.

$26.95 (cloth)
$15.95 (paper)

Irene Quenzler Brown and Richard D. Brown. [Review of the book. The Hanging of Ephraim Wheeler: A Story of Rape, Incest, and Justice in Early America.] Reviews in American History, 32 (2004) 499–505. Cambridge, Mass., Harvard University Press, 2003. Available in paperback April, 2005.

Rohner Center Studies Impact of Parenting on Relationships. Uconn Advance, January 31, 2005. An article telling how Ron Rohner's interest in parental acceptance-rejection came to be, some of his achievements through the years, and how Ron has now developed a test for collecting information on parental relationships that can be used around the world.

Presentations —

On February 9-13, Jeanne Chadwick traveled to NY City where at the Teachers' College she attended the Columbia University International Conference on Contemplative Education. She gave a talk and presented her dissertation research, about the future direction of Mindfulness studies.

Please remember to submit any SFS "happenings" (interesting news, upcoming events, announcements, etc) ASAP for the next issue of this newsletter.

janice.berriault@uconn.edu

Upcoming Events—

Please join the Center on Aging & Human Development as Brent Gibson, Ph.D. presents his research entitled "Adults Care for Their Elderly Parents in the Context of Their Lifelong Relationships". Date: Wednesday, March 2 - Dean's Lounge from 12:00-1:00 (bring your lunch).

The Center for the Study of Culture, Health and Human Development presents its Spring 2005 Colloquium Series. Speakers & dates:

- 3/3- Stephen Suomi, Ph.D.- "How gene-environment interactions can shape biobehavioral development in primates"
- 3/24- Robert Sternberg, Ph.D.- "Culture and intelligence"
- 4/14- Carol Worthman, Ph.D.- "How to get a life: cultural models, individual differences, and the problem of habitus among youth in western North Carolina"
- 4/21- Lee Pachter, D.O.- "Effects of parenting styles, maternal depression, neighborhood and poverty on children of diverse ethnic groups"

HDFS Honors Students Poster Exhibit & Reception- HDFS Students who are graduating this year will present the results of their honors theses in a poster session. Everyone is invited to come see what our students have been doing and talk to them about their work.

Date: Tuesday, April 19- Family Studies Building, first floor, from 4:00 – 5:30 p.m.

Save The Date—

6/9- SFS Annual Meeting/Dinner

New Staff —

We welcome Janice Berriault to the School of Family Studies. Janice has been a member of the Division's business team, and possesses talent and training in graphic design and marketing as well. She will play an important role in our new visibility efforts.